Rules and Procedures

Philosophy:

All students are capable of succeeding in the class. You have the responsibility to conduct yourself in a manner which is respectful to yourself and others. All school rules will be enforced in this class.

Supplies:

You are required to have a three ring loose-leaf binder along with several pens and pencils. These items must be brought to class with you every day including test days.

Notebook:

Your notebook should be organized in chronological order. You are to write the date in the upper right hand corner of all papers and they should be organized in that manner with the earliest worksheets in the front and the most recent worksheets in the back. Your notebook should be neat and organized at all times. You should empty your notebook at the end of each unit to help you stay organized. If at any point you feel you need help getting organized, feel free to stop by extra help and I would be happy to help you.

Attendance:

When you are absent it is your responsibility to make up all missed work in a timely fashion. It is your responsibility to show me your made up work for credit. You should have the phone number of one classmate to find out what work you missed.

Extra Help:

Mrs. Mahoney's extra help will be given after school twice a week in Room 230, and usually on Tuesdays and Thursdays. However, if there is a quiz or test that week, I will be here that morning at 7:15 and the afternoon schedule will change accordingly. Mr. Catapano's extra help will be given in Room 230 Tuesday and Thursday at 2:41-3:06, as well as Wednesday mornings 7:20-7:40.

GRADING

Homework: All homework assignments are very important and will either be checked or graded for a grade out of 10 points. If you fail to turn in an assignment when it is due, you can make it up and hand it in late for half credit. Your homework grade will count as a test grade each marking period.

Classwork, Participation and Behavior: You will receive a classwork grade for each marking period that is based on how well prepared you are, class participation as well as overall attitude and behavior. This will be a 50 point quiz grade and each time you are unprepared or need to be spoken to, you will lose one point off your total grade.

- You are expected to be prepared and involved in class and group discussions on a regular basis.
- You are expected and required to treat others with respect.
- You must raise your hand and wait to be called on.
- You must listen and show respect when someone else is speaking.

Tests and Quizzes: Quizzes will be given on a regular basis and are usually out of 50 points or less. Tests will be given two or three times a marking period and are worth 100 points each.

Projects: Project grades will vary depending on time spent on them, content and other factors.

We pledge to each of you, that in this classroom you will be treated fairly and with respect. In return, we ask that you treat your teachers and every one of your classmates with respect as well. We look forward to a fun and exciting school year.
